

John Curtis Christian School Basketball Skills Camp for Girls

2021-2022 STATE CHAMPIONS

Camp Director Temeka Johnson, JCCS Girls Basketball Coach along with her staff and players will be responsible for teaching and demonstrating individual drills of ball handling, offensive footwork and defensive principles. In Coach Johnson's first year, she led the Patriots to a State Championship. The former 11-year WNBA player and WNBA champion is also the all-time career assist leader at LSU from 2001-2005

Campers will be breaking up into groups with similar playing skills and age. They will receive individual attention from JCCS coaching staff and current players to help develop your child's basketball skills. Camp includes camp t-shirt, powerade and water & snack for each day.
